

MARIE AFTON ROBINSON

Lehi Centennial History 1850-1950

Marie Afton Robinson, daughter of the late George G. and Beulah Adams Robinson, was born in Lehi, November 20, 1915.

In 1924, the family moved into their present home. While still in the Primary she won honor for her perfect attendance.

She was educated in the Lehi schools and graduated from Seminary May 7, 1933, and later from a teacher training course prescribed for all future Sunday School teachers, and served in this capacity for about one year.

While still in high school she was on the debating team and graduated May 23, 1934, "with honors." She afterwards attended the Brigham Young University, graduating June 4, 1941. During her attendance at the "Y" she helped to form a ladies' business sorority, and was its vice-president; it later became known as Phi Chi Theta, of which she was a charter member and was also affiliated with Lambda Delta Sigma. While at Brigham Young University, she was a member of the ladies' and mixed chorus.

She is very active in the Young Women's Mutual Improvement Association, from October, 1939, to the present time has held the offices of secretary, teacher, first and second counselor. Active in Church and civic organizations, she is a member of the Second Ward choir.

She worked on the bond committee as saleswomen and chairwoman from 1942 to 1945, and was employed by Columbia Steel Company for three years. In 1946 she was employed by Lehi City as an office assistant; afterwards being appointed as Deputy Clerk. She is still employed in the city office.
